

CHRISTMAS
COUNTDOWN

Santa's Beard Christmas Advent Calendar

Hey there, Santa, where's your beard?

It should be long and white!

How about if I add cotton balls

One glued on every night?

I'll start December one, OK?

And end on Christmas Eve.

Then the waiting will be done

For Christmas I believe.

Your beard will be so white and full

And we can have some fun,

Celebrating Christmas eve and day

With love for every one!
